

BALVIN, BEN AND MARIE (DRAHOS)

F35

Ben Balvin joined his brothers John and Albert in 1892. He was born January 12, 1873 in Chvalnice, Plzen, Bohemia. The brothers went to Woodbury County although they may have taken jobs near Spencer.

Ben came back to Tama County to marry Marie Drahos, daughter of Joseph and Katerina Breston Drahos. They were married in Toledo August 14, 1897. Following the wedding, Ben and his bride returned to Woodbury County and farmed for three years. They then came back to Tama County and bought a farm one mile west of Clutier.

Their children were: Mrs. Charles (Mary) Benda born July 15, 1898. They were parents of eleven children. Joe E. born January 3, 1900 and married Emma Dolash; they had three children. Anna (Mrs. Frank Pejchl) had several children. Rose was born May 10, 1903, married Joe Brezina and twelve children were born to them. Victoria (Mrs. Emil Caslavka) was born December 23, 1905 and there were 10 children. Albina (Mrs. Wilson Masker) was born November 12, 1906. Their children numbered seven. Emil was born August 12, 1909, and never married. Willie was born May 14, 1910 and died September 1910. Tena married Melvin Blocker. She was born June 4, 1911, and they were parents of 14 children. Frank Balvin was born May 12, 1913 and died June 15, 1968 unmarried. Benjamin Balvin, Jr. was born in 1915. His wife was Delores Wiltzen. They had three sons. The mother and one son are deceased. Louis was born August 12, 1917 and died September 4, 1918.

Ben operated the farm about 30 years. Marie died August 28, 1935. Ben died January 25, 1956. They are buried in St. Aclav's Cemetery near Clutier beside their two little boys.

BALVIN, VENCLUS (JAMES) AND ALBINA (PETRUS)

F39

Of the five Balvin brothers in Tama County, Venclus or James came last, in 1903. He had spent several years in the military and had married Albina Petrus in Vienna, Austria. While in the service he learned the business of shoemaking. They had three children. His wife and the children probably came a year later. James was born on the 28th of September or November of 1865. His wife was born December 9, 1871. The children were Agnes, Mary, and the boy thought to be Frank. Frank died of an accidental shooting shortly after the family came to Iowa but the grave or records of the incident have not been found. It is thought families not understanding the English language buried their people without any publicity.

James washed dishes in New York, worked in Cedar Rapids, Belle Plaine, and then farmed around Vining and eventually north-east of Toledo. In the meantime a son James was born November 11, 1905, Mildred on October 10, 1906, and Alba (Betty) on April 1, 1908.

Mary was married to Dan Blessing and moved to Chicago. They had two boys, Richard and Clarence.

Agnes married Albert Prusha and last lived in Grinnell, Iowa. They had one daughter, Glendena (Mrs. Clark Wilson).

Mildred married Ralph McComas September 7, 1925 in Traer. They had one son Richard, who operated Dick's cafe in Toledo. Alba married Joe Wesser November 7, 1927 and they had one son, Russell.

James' wife Albina died October 27, 1916. He married Theresa (Linhart) Pokorney in 1921 and she died in 1926. He then married a Mrs. Hlavacek.

Ralph McComas took over the farming from James for a time and after they moved to town, James worked in the Kremenak shoe store repairing shoes.

James used to visit his nephew Louis Balvin and wonder if all the children's shoes were fixed. He could do tricks with his hands and used to entertain the children. When Louis moved to Chelsea, James' grandson Dick would drive him there for a day's visit.

Death came to James November 13, 1943. He and his wife are buried at the National Cemetery near Vining.

BALVIN, JOHN AND ANNA (SKALA)

F36

John Balvin born June 15, 1856, son of Frank and Mary Schelhowic Balvin came to the United States in 1874. He worked a short time in Cleveland, Ohio, then came to Tama County, Iowa. He was living in Oneida Township when he married Anna Skala, daughter of Joseph and Cady (Paul) Skala of York township, February 6, 1882. Witnesses to the ceremony were James Skala and Joseph Novak. Welcome Mowry, Justice of Peace, performed the marriage rites.

Eleven children were born to this union - Francis, Mary and John were born in Tama County, and perhaps Annie, Joseph and Emil. Rose, Emma, Edward, Christine and Amelia were probably born in Woodbury County.

John must have been fairly prosperous for in spite of marriage and family, he sent for his brothers, Albert in 1891, Ben in 1892, Anton in 1894. These brothers may have helped pay expenses too. In 1903, a fifth brother came who was already married and had several children. His family came a year later. A nephew, Ben Benda, came in 1906 but he may have come on his own.

It seems that by 1895, the four brothers had moved on to western Iowa and then farmed in Woodbury County. In 1906 John moved on to South Dakota around Tyndall, whereas the other three had returned earlier to Tama County.

BALVIN, ALBERT AND ANTONIE (KOVAR)

F33

Albert Balvin was born near Plzen, Bohemia, to Frank and Mary (Schelhowic) Balvin. He served in the Austrian Army and was taught the art of tailoring, a trade he never used. He came to America in 1891 to join the brother, John, in Tama County who had paid his passage and who had come to America some 17 years before. Albert worked for various farmers around Chelsea, Iowa, but around 1894 after the arrival of brothers Ben and Anton, the four brothers decided to go west to Woodbury County.

Albert returned in 1895 to marry a Belle Plaine girl, Antonie Kovar. The ceremony was performed August 24 by Justice of Peace George Huston in that city.

Parents of Antonie were John and Anna (Pribyl) Kovar. They came to this country in 1873 from Recice, Moravia, where Antonie was born May 7, 1873. There were two older brothers and two older sisters. Another brother was born in this country. The father and his oldest son worked for the railroads in the area towns.

Albert and Antonie left for his farm near Anthon, Iowa, in Woodbury County. There Louis was born August 26, 1896, Anna May on August 8, 1898, and Mary September 29, 1900. In the spring of 1902, the family returned to Chelsea where Albert had purchased a farm. (A relative remembers Albert breaking up clods with a hammer in order to ready the soil for planting.) The family had loaded their household belongings, farm tools and livestock and moved by train. Louis and Anna May enrolled in the Rector school for that spring term and their teacher was Alyce Boyer.

A son, Albert, was born October 10, 1904 and two years later on September 10, 1906 another son, Joseph, was born. Then on April 30, 1908, Antonie tripped on a loose board of a side walk. She was in her sixth month of pregnancy and started hemorrhaging. The doctor removed the baby in an effort to save her life but Antonie died May 2. The baby was buried beneath a plum tree in the orchard. Antonie was buried in Oakhill Cemetery in Belle Plaine, Benton County, Iowa, leaving five children motherless.

In order to provide a mother's care for the children, Albert married Anna Chesick Vite, a widow with four or five grown children, the following October 14, 1908. Her son was deaf and evidently enjoyed riding a motorcycle. The girls were probably working as hired help. Albert's children didn't think they would take to this new mother but in time were calling her Ma. She was kind but strict and once Joe, being denied an apple, went into the cellar and threw out a quantity through the cellar window, then crawled out that window. Ma Anna was waiting for him with a switch. Albert and Anna didn't always hit it off either and at one time it cost Albert $100 to rescind a divorce proceeding. Anna died January 30, 1923. She'd been ill for about three years. Her last words to her stepson, Louis, were to ask how his wife and 10-day old baby were getting along. She was buried in the Rector Cemetery, south of Chelsea where some years later Albert would also be laid.

As was the custom, Albert put a down payment of $500 on a farm for Louis northeast of Toledo as it was time for him to be making his own way. Anna, his daughter, went to work in Belle Plaine and later to Cedar Rapids where she worked in a laundry. Albert bought a house there and spent some of his time living there. He would visit with many of his countrymen in the area we now call Czech Village. He also bought a farm east of the home place for young Albert to farm. Mary and her husband were farming the home farm and Joe was working for area farmers.

Anna married Albert Lund but soon found he had another wife and the marriage was annulled. Some years later in 1934 she met and married Charles Brosh in Toledo. They lived on a farm near Swisher. They had two sons, Charles and Donald, but Anna died May 10, 1944 when they were very young.

Mary was married December 31, 1923 to George DeVore, son of Elphas and Margaret E. Johnson DeVore. They lived on various farms around Chelsea, then moved to town and still later to Belle Plaine, Iowa. Their children were Betty born May 26, 1928 and Richard George born April 4, 1930. George died January 21, 1961 and Mary July 30, 1983. Both are buried at Rector Cemetery.

Father Albert died in Mercy Hospital, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, July 1, 1932. Joe took over the family farm after his father's death and he and Albert farmed the two farms together. Joe was killed in a tractor accident February 26, 1941 and Louis took over the farm until the estate was settled. Louis was married to Emma Drahos and they had four children. Their story is elsewhere. Albert spent several months in the army during WWII, then worked for farmers. He then lived with sister Mary and still later in the Iowa Veterans Home in Marshalltown. He died October 28, 1985.

by Wilma E. Malina

These stories on the 5 Balvin brothers are in the Tama County History that was published in 1987. There are some discrepancies in it as I either didn't know or didn't check my information.

BALVIN, ANTON AND MARY (PRIBYL)

F34

Anton Balvin followed brothers John, Albert and Ben to Iowa. John had sent him a ticket but he stayed too late at a dance and missed the boat. He came on a freighter in 1894. Anton was born to Frank and Mary Schelhowic in 1874, June 11. He was one of 16 children.

After spending some time in western Iowa he came to Tama County and married Mary Pribyl daughter of Vencil and Lena (Zadravil) Pribyl. They were married January 8, 1898 in Toledo, Iowa. They farmed in Woodbury County for a while then returned to Tama County, farming in the southeast corner of the county.

Children born to them were a baby in 1899 that died, Mary Stella October 17, 1900, Emil in 1902, May 27, Frank born November 17, 1903 and Lena born February 20, 1906. When Lena was ten days old the family left for Wolsey, South Dakota. Anton thought the town would grow as there were two railroads there. Two more children were born - Della, September 25, 1907 and Charles, May 30, 1910.

Anton's wife Mary had family that had gone on ahead to South Dakota. She was born June 23, 1874 and died August 1955. Anton died February 19, 1963. They were in Tama County for a while and as such they are a part of its history.

Of the Frank (probably Frantisek) and Mary Schelhowic Balvin family, five sons came to America. Eight other sons and three girls remained in the "old country". However, it seems one of the girls, Barbara, married a Frank Benda and their son, Ben Benda, came to America 16 May 1913. His children were William, Louis (dec.), Joseph (dec.), Fred and Lillian (Leonard Upah). John is thought to be the oldest in the family and Anton the youngest. It is believed they came one at a time each helping the other.
