

BIOGRAPHIC INFORMATION

Janet A. Aldridge, 631 Kiely Boulevard, Santa Clara, CA 95051;
Telephone: 408/248-1815; Soc. Security No. 329-22-4853.

Born Janet A. Balvin on November 9, 1928 at Yankton, South Dakota

Married Robert C. Aldridge on August 17, 1947 at Watsonville, California.
Parents of ten children -- 6 daughters and 4 sons.
Grandparents of 7 granddaughters and 4 grandsons.

Twenty-five years experience as a full time homemaker.

Ten years experience with learning disabled children and vision therapy.

Presently a Language Development Assistant with the public school system.
Coordinator of the English Language Acquisition Program at the Junior High level.

Activities:

Has co-Authored articles on family life and nonviolence.

Has spoken frequently on family life and nonviolence, as well as the arms race and its effect on the Third World. Has also conducted workshops.

Participated in the World Conference Against A & H Bombs held in Tokyo, Hiroshima and Nagasaki during August 1979.

Conducted a one week speaking tour with her husband, Bob, in Kanagawa and Shizouka Prefectures of Japan during August 1979.

Santa Clara County co-coordinator (with her husband, Bob) for the National Parenting for Peace and Justice Network.

On the National Advisory Committee for the Center on Law and Pacifism headquartered at Cokedale, Colorado.

Member of the National Council of the Fellowship of Reconciliation.

Involved in tax resistance and simple living as a step toward ridding the world of nuclear weapons and finding sensible methods of conflict resolution.

#####