*We started off from the Santa Clara Station.
Catching the 9:15 AM CalTrain 135*

We were anxiously anticipating the adventures that lie ahead

The train conductor sensed our excitement and insisted on taking our group picture

We reached the end of the line at 4th and King Streets at 10:40 AM and disembarked

Our Day in San Francisco

February 17, 2010

Nancy, Jeff, Mitchell, Nicole, Ashleigh, and Us

Then we took the light rail T-train to the underground Embarcadero Station where we transferred to the N-train and traveled to the end of the line at Ocean Beach

We were told it was only a couple blocks to the Cliff House which we could see in the distance. It turned out to be more like a mile but it was a beautiful walk along Ocean Beach on a beautiful day

By the time we arrived at the Cliff House we had worked up a tremendous appetite

Everything worked out perfectly and we got a corner table with a grand view – the best table in the house, as our waiter described it

Our Day in San Francisco

February 17, 2010

Nancy, Jeff, Mitchell, Nicole, Ashleigh, and Us

After consuming a hearty meal the kids divided a "PB&J Dome" desert three ways

We then took Bus 38L back to Powell street where we boarded the Powell & Hyde cable car number 15, which took us over Knob Hill and Russian Hill

At the top of Russian Hill we saw the upper terminus of the narrow, winding, cobble stone street called Lombard Crookedest Street

It was steep going down Russian Hill. We could see Hyde Street Pier at the bottom and Alcatraz in the distance

Our Day in San Francisco

February 17, 2010

Nancy, Jeff, Mitchell, Nicole, Ashleigh, and Us

We were fortunate to get choice seats on the cable car. Nicole and Ashleigh hung onto the outside for the ride up and over two of San Francisco's steepest hills.

We enjoyed it too

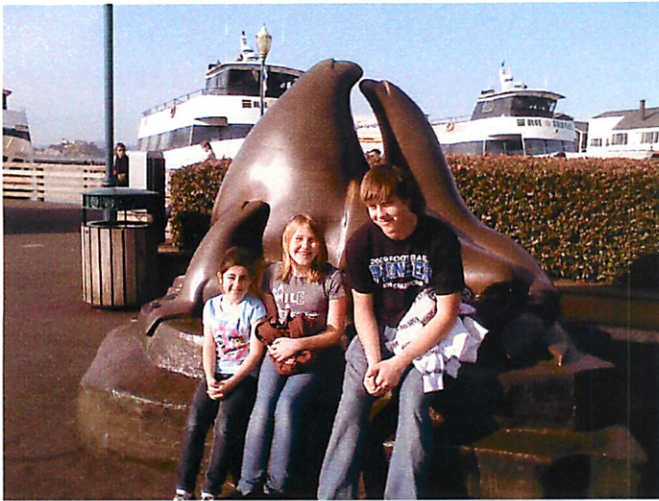

Then we went out on Hyde Street Pier with a good view of the bay and Alcatraz in the distance

We could look back up Russian Hill which we had just descended

Our Day in San Francisco February 17, 2010
Nancy, Jeff, Mitchell, Nicole, Ashleigh, and Us

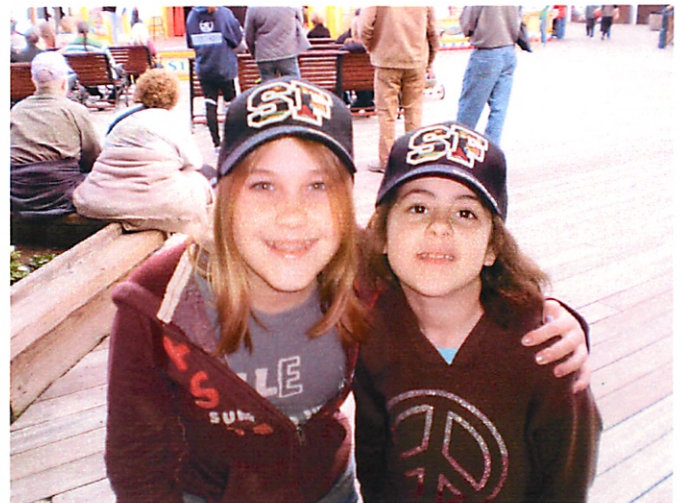

After walking past Fisherman's Wharf the kids wanted a picture with the seals by the Ferry Building

On Pier 39 we found a restaurant where we could quench our thirst

And were we thirsty!

Of course the girls had to buy souvenir caps

Our Day in San Francisco February 17, 2010
Nancy, Jeff, Mitchell, Nicole, Ashleigh, and Us

After seeing exploring Pier 39 we had some ice cream

Likewise for Nicole and Ashleigh

It was getting late as we headed toward a street car stop on The Embarcadero

It was dusk by the time we caught the F-Line to Embarcadero Station where we transferred to the T-Line to the CalTrans Station

At the 4th and King Station we caught CalTrain 190 at 7:30 PM. The end of a long and enjoyable day

Welcome to the Garden of the Gods

A National Natural Landmark

Park Rules

Garden of the Gods Park is a unique city park. Please help protect this fragile environment by following all the park rules and staying on the trails. Remember, over a million other visitors may be following your tracks.

- Stay on marked trails. Trampling of plants and soil causes severe erosion.
- Do not climb, hike or walk on the rock formations. Technical rock climbing is allowed only by special permit. Technical climbers must register at the Visitor Center.
- Do not mark or carve on the rocks.
- Do not disturb or remove any of the Park's natural features, such as rocks, plants or animals.
- Ride horses only on designated equestrian trails. Check at the visitor center for information.
- Keep pets on leash at all times.
- Camping is not permitted in the Park.
- Fires may be built only in grills provided. Charcoal only.
- Dispose of trash in trash cans.
- Alcoholic beverages are not allowed in the Park.
- Park only in designated parking areas.

Thank you for following the Park rules!

Dangerous Rocks!

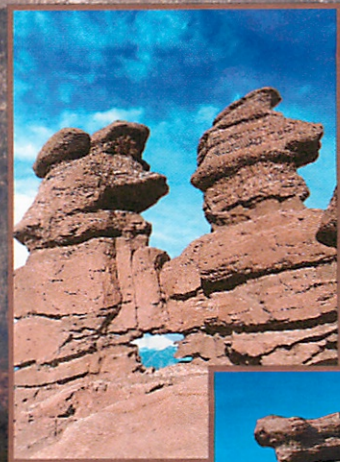

Throughout the Park's history, several serious and fatal rock climbing accidents have occurred. It is easier to climb up than to climb down. Save yourself from a harrowing and dangerous predicament by staying on the ground!

Technical climbers are required to register at the Visitor Center. Technical climbing is permitted in groups of two or more with proper climbing equipment.

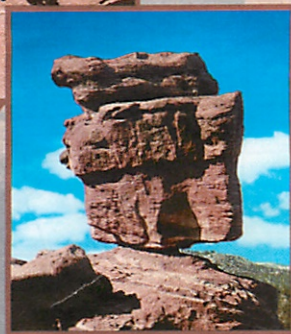

All other climbing is illegal and may result in a fine of up to $500.

Great Trails!

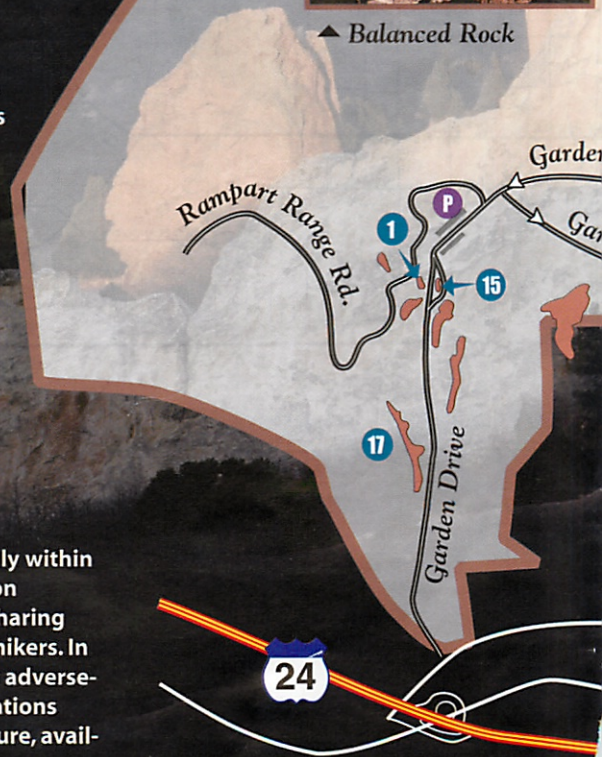

- Perkins Central Garden Trail (Paved)
Easy, 1 1/2 mile roundtrip, with less than a 30 ft. rise. Wheelchair, stroller accessible. This loop is in the heart of the Park at the base of the highest rock formations.
- Ridge Trail
Moderate, 1/2 mile roundtrip, with less than a 150 ft. rise. This path gives you the feeling of being up among the rocks.
- Siamese Twins Trail
Easy, 1 mile roundtrip, with less than a 150 ft. rise. There is a unique view of Pikes Peak through the natural window of the Twins.
- Chambers/Bretag/Palmer Trail
Moderate, 3 miles starting from South Parking lot, with less than a 250 ft. rise. Nearly circling the park, this trail covers rolling, rocky terrain.
- Scotsman/Buckskin Charlie Trails
Moderate loop trail through the Park. Enjoy the distant views of the Central Garden Formations from these rolling rocky trails.

▲ Balanced Rock

Mountain Biking

Mountain biking is allowed off road only within the designated mountain biking area on marked trails. Remember, you will be sharing those trails with equestrian users and hikers. In order to make sure that this area is not adversely impacted, please abide by the regulations outlined in the mountain biking brochure, available at the Visitor Center.
